CLIC Sargent is the UK's leading cancer charity for children and young people, and their families. We provide clinical, practical, financial and emotional support to help them cope with cancer and get the most out of life. We are there from diagnosis onwards and aim to help the whole family deal with the impact of cancer and its treatment, life after treatment and, in some cases, bereavement.

Grief Encounter

Address:	Grief Encounter Project, The Lodge, 17 East End Road London N3 3QE
Telephone	020 8371 8455
Email:	contact@griefencounter.org.uk
Website:	www.griefencounter.org.uk/

Grief Encounter support bereaved children and their families to help alleviate the pain caused by the death of someone close. Services are free, funded through the generosity of supporters. The service offers a flexible and accessible bereavement service which aims to professionally care and respond to the needs of each service user and support every family with an individual approach.

Support is varied and can take the form of anything from a family Fun Day to a one-on-one meeting. Support can also extend to other family members, school and friends. Services include Residential Camps and Helpline which offers advice and support.

Individuals can sign up to be on the service's mailing list online.
